

WHEN A MAN CAN' T HELP HIMSELF

Now man would tell us the way God works

Is to help those who help themselves;

But God says a man can' t help himself;

There' s no value in all his lurks.

While a man can go on and work his own plans,

He is trusting in what he can do;

But this is not what God looks for,

When considering me and you.

A man needs to know, when he' s worked all his plans,

And has found that he still is down,

And he can' t get up wherever he turns,

That if he struggles, he drowns.

For when we are down, it' s a good place to be ---

There is no other way but up;

When you have exhausted your own able deeds,
This will cause you in God to trust.

And to trust Him, is what He desires,
For it' s then He comes to our aid;
He tells us that our works are hopeless,
But that His Son, our acceptance has made.

God DOESN' T help those who help themselves,
He helps those who have come to their end;
By providing in Christ, our Salvation,
He' s the helpless one' s wonderful Friend.

By J.D.Fragar

With permission from K. & M. Gibson